Oasis Pilgrims Depart for Hajj 2008

The first group of Hajjis have successfully departed for Saudi Arabia to perform the annual Pilgrimage. In the days leading up to the Hajj, Muslims from all over the world shall be congregating in Saudi Arabia to perform one of the 5 pillars of Islam. Oasis has arranged for comprehensive packages which include hotel accommodation, transfers by bus, and Ziarat tours for these Hajjis. The Hajj Group shall be returning on December 11th 2008, after completing all the rites and rituals of the Pilgrimage.

A Special Trip for Students

The Event Management team at Oasis recently returned from a successful trip to Cairo (Egypt). 33 students from the Convent of Jesus & Mary School went on a most memorable trip to one of the oldest civilizations of the world; where they had a chance to experience the awe-inspiring Pyramids and see the several historical artifacts at the Museum of Ancient History.

Date Set for Arrival of QE2 in Dubai

The world's best loved cruise liner, the QE2, will arrive in Dubai at the end of her ultimate voyage on Wednesday November 26th 2008. Once she arrives in the Emirate, the ownership of QE2 will be transferred to developer Nakheel.

Over the coming months she will undergo extensive refurbishment before taking her place at a specially constructed berth on the Palm Jumeirah where she will become a floating hotel and must-visit attraction for many thousands of visitors and tourists.

QE2 has circumnavigated the world 25 times, crossed the Atlantic more than 800 times and carried more than 2.5 million passengers including kings and queens, prime ministers and presidents, astronauts and The Beatles.

She survived a 95 ft wave during Hurricane Luis, carried 3,000 troops to the Falklands War and rescued 500 passengers from a burning ship.

She is a record breaker for both speed and endurance, has featured in countless films and television shows and draws crowds to every port she docks in.
